BIOGRAPHY

New York City native and Barcelona resident, Ralph Rodriguez aka Ralph Session, over his career as an International DJ and Producer, has developed a distinct musical vibe with his unique productions and DJ sets. Discovering the House Music sound of his city in the early 2000s, Rodriguez grew into the club culture of NYC via the Breakdancing movement. Pursuing his interest in DJing and making music, he cut his teeth on the dance floors of seminal spots, such as Cielo on Little W 12th Street in Manhattan.

2023 has seen his ever growing experience and reputation pay off with further explorations into house being recognised with releases on some of the finest house music labels around, Large Music, Sole Channel Music, Nervous Records, Exploited and Snatch!

Ralph Session also has his own imprint, Half-Assed Records as a platform to curate the international sound of New York City. As Ralph built up his production catalogue with statement releases such as A Nod To MAW, After Hours, The Boogie Down Pt. 1 & Pt. 2, and Cielo EPs, he went on to hit bigger targets with Don't You Lose Hope (Ralph Session NYC Remix) for Oliver Dollar and Jason Hodges on Industry Standard, as well as a strong Fresh Cuts EP for London's Black Riot in 2021.

A passionate DJ, Session has played in some of the best clubs in the world. From Cielo NYC and Climax Institutes (GER) to Macarena Club and Apolo (Spain). His love for the House sound of NYC is getting noticed as he paints his cross-continental picture of the dance floor sound he envisions. Make sure Ralph Session is on your line up.
